(Verse 1:)

She got mad and lost her head
 OLD ST. HELEN!
 Sky turned black and the trees fell dead
 OLD ST. HELEN!
 Cleanup crews were working hard
 OLD ST. HELEN!
 They had to change that postcard
 OLD ST. HELEN!

(Chorus:)

Oh, oh, oh, the mountains gonna blow!
 Oh, oh, oh, the lava's gonna flow!
 Oh, oh, oh, the ash is gonna rise!
 Oh, oh, oh, there were pieces of the mountain in your eyes,
 Up your nose and down your chest!
 A little bit deeper on every breath!
 She don't care your point of view,
 now the mountain's part of you!
 RUMBLE!!!

Truman lived by Spirit Lake
 OLD ST. HELEN!
 They told him to leave, he said, "Aww,
 give me a break!"
 OLD ST. HELEN!
 "I've lived on this mountain fifty years!"
 OLD ST. HELEN!
 "Ain't nothing moving me from here!"
 OLD ST. HELEN!

May 18th, at 8:32
 OLD ST. HELEN!
 In 1980 that's when she blew
 OLD ST. HELEN!
 Old man Truman did not dodge
 OLD ST. HELEN!
 She covered him up inside his lodge
 OLD ST. HELEN!

(Chorus)

(Verse 4:)

Ten years later I came by
 OLD ST. HELEN!
 Looking at the sights and the things
 to buy
 OLD ST. HELEN!
 In between the mobile homes
 OLD ST. HELEN!
 I see she's got a brand new dome
 OLD ST. HELEN!

(Chorus)
