

SLEEEEEEEEPING...

From the album Life So Far

When I was young I did not know
What people meant when they said so and so was
'Sleeping together'
Because when mom and dad were fast asleep
I'd tiptoe in and gently creep between, we'd be
'Sleeping together'
I only knew between the two
My dreams were better
And all my fears disappeared
Sleeping together

When we'd been dating for a week
I finally kissed you on the cheek and said we should try
Sleeping together
You said, "That sounds premature,"
I did my best to reassure, "I really mean just
'Sleeping' together"
You said, "No tricks and don't be slick,"
You slept in your jeans and your sweater
In our cocoon we lay like spoons
Sleeping together

Hush – be still; feel the beating of my heart
Hush – be still; this is where the music starts

Sleeping together
Sleeping together

Someday when we're old and gray
If looks and lust have passed I pray we're
Sleeping together
Now I lay me down to sleep
I pray the Love will keep us
Sleeping together
Our bodies lay like notes sustained
We're music together
The warmest chord I've ever heard
Sleeping together

Sleeping together
Sleeping together
Sleeping together
