CHORUS:

Who's gonna make our music? We're gonna make our music!

Who's gonna make our music? We're gonna make our music!

What'll we do? Bang and sing!

What'll we use? Everything!

Who's gonna make our music? We're gonna make our music!

Everybody here please understand, everybody here is in the band

You've got a body and a brain; that's all you need to explain

If you want to do your part, if you want to make some art

Just look inside your heart, that's where the whole thing starts!

CHORUS

When you get home tonight, see what you can find

Open up the cabinets, open up your mind

Pull out the pots and pans, pull out the tin cans

Pull out your big blue garbage can, you can start your own band!
